DISRUPTION IN RANKS OF THE REPUBLICANS.

Indications Are That New Fight Is On for Control of the Organization

Λ

MANY JOIN HAMILTON CLUB.

Contest Between Elements Shows There Is but Little Hope for a United Party in St. Louis.

If indications point correctly, St. Louis epublicans are in the beginning of a new fight for control of the organization which will disrupt them even more than they were in the last election.

The progress of the Hamilton Club in the ast two or three weeks has shown that als new element in local politics will leave he Republicans in a state of factional warfare which will be worse than for years. A meeting of the new organization was held last night at the Columbian Club. When the organization was first formed the by-laws provided that no member could se allied with any other political organizaion. This was inserted in the rules simply to hurt the St. Louis Republican Club. Then it was discovered that some of those who might be induced to join the Hamilton liub would not leave the St. Louis Republican Club under such conditions. Such men as George P. Weinbrenner, who holds the fwenty-fifth Ward in his pocket, was one of them.

So the by-laws were changed. Now the Hamilton Club will not permit any of its members to join another political organiza-tion. Weinbrenner then toined the new club. Otto Stifel, member of the State Com call, Otto Strei, incemer of the State Com-mittee and one of the main supports of the St. Louis Republican Club, thought that poor judgment had been used in refusing to merge with the Merchants' League Club and has gone over and become a director in the Hamilton Club.

COMMITTEEMEN DESERT. At the same time desertions began from the reformers' ranks in the City Commit tee. Henry F. Vocke of the Third Ward William H. Ludwig of the Thirteenth. Henry L. Weeke, Jr., of the Seventeenth. L. Shaeperkoetter of the Nineteenth. Nathan Goldstein of the Twentieth, Charles A. Day of the Twenty-second, P. H. Clarke of the Twenty-third and George P. Weinbrenner of the Twenty-fifth are all claimed by the Hamilton Club as recruits to their ranks.

These recruits must be added to the old ranks.

These recruits must be added to the old Ziegenhein-Kerens members of the committee to give an idea of the strength of the new movement. They include C. H. Witthoefft of the Second, John B. Owen of the Sixth, Henry Baer of the Eighth, Edward Koeln of the Eleventh, Louis Alt of the Twelfth, George W. Reichmann of the Eighteenth and B. R. Bonner of the Twenty-eighth, Old and new represent fifteen out of twenty-eight wards.

Of course, there is some dispute about how far the allegiance of two or three of the recruits goes. Those friendly to the St. Louis Republican Club insist that the apparent desertions are not as strong as Hamilton Club sympathizers believe, and that when the time comes the primaries will show radical differences.

Hamilton Club directors are making their strongest card not of their Ziegenhein-Kerens proclivities but of the failure which attended their efforts to merge with the St. Louis Republican Club. Both sides acknowledge that the fight has only begun and that there is no telling how far the fight will extend, but that there is no hope for a united party in St. Louis seems certain.

My refrigerator uses so much ice and still the air seems foul, is the common complaint of people who have purchased one from the cheap bargain stores. It could not be other-wise with the common refrigerator, Ringen Store Co.'s "Quick Comfort" can be kept clean and sweet and preserves the ice. In price, it is no higher than the common non-cleanable kinds.

ELUDES COUNTY DEPUTIES. Joe Brockel Refuses to Appear as a Witness.

Joe Brockel, a former Deputy Sheriff in St. Louis, defied a special Deputy Sheriff from Clayton Monday afternoon when the latter attempted to serve a writ of attachment issued by Circuit Judge McElhin-

Brockel was wanted as a witness in the $10,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. Helen Link, against Mrs. Dora Verhauer on a charge of allenating her husband's affec-tions now on trial in the Clayton Circuit tions, now on trial in the Clayton Circuit Court.

Brockel was found at Broadway and Bitner street. Special Deputy Campbell read the writ and the former deputy declared that he would not go to Clayton. He threatened to use his trowel over Campbell's head if any attempt was made to take him. Campbell had been pressed into service and came to St. Louis without either a revolver or star. Brockel demanded more proof of his identity, which he was unable to furnish.

Campbell telephoned to Clayton for re-enforcements, but by the time they arrived Brockel was gone.

A FIREMAN BURNED.

A Can of Chemicals Which He Was Handling Exploded.

While he was moving a box containing a can of acid for the chemical engine in the Central Fire Station at Indianapolis, Ind., the can exploded and severely injured Fireman George H. Harmon. The ambulance was called and the suffering man was removed to his home at No. 406 East South street, where it was found he was severely burned about the limbs. In telling a reporter the story of his recovery, he said:

"The pain was awful and the shock to my nervous system was so great that it aggravated a long-standing trouble to such an extent that I feared I could not again take up my work as fireman. And I don't believe I could had it not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pilis for Pale People.

"My heart palpitated violently on the slightest excitement and often caused a choking or smothering sensation. My breathing became short and my nervous system in general was in an alarming state. I could not steep, could not eat and did nothing but worry, until a friend, who had been cured of an obstinate case of nervous exhaustion by Dr. Williams' Pink Pilis, induced me to take that remedy. Pive days after I began taking Pink Pilis for Pale People there was an improvement and in a short time they completely cured me."

SAYS LEE OPPOSED

Judge Emery Speer of Georgia Speaks on Life and Character of Confederate General.

GENERAL'S SUBLIME PATIENCE.

Sword of Great Soldier, Jurist Declares, Was Drawn in Defense-Favors Statue by Washington's.

Oxford, Ga., June 9.-Judge Emory Speer. of Macon delivered to-day the annual commencement address at Emory College. His subject was "The Life and Character of General Robert E. Lee," and he gave a vivid and eloquent recital of the great soldier's arcer, dwelling upon Lee's sublime poise and patience, both in victory and defeat. Referring to Lee's motives, in entering th service of the Confederace Junta Spect said: "The time seems apportune for the American people to dispassionately anguire whether Robert E. Lee ever merited the reprobation even of the most ardent advosate of our perpetual union. "Loving our reunited country with all my heart, counting the long years I have spen in its service as my chief honor, I yet contend that rich as it is in military glory, bril-Hant through the roll of its heroes, it can no longer afford to question the military and personal honor of Lee and his noble competriots America, with all her acknowledged power, cannot fall to appropriate that warlike renown which gleamed on the bayonets and blazed in the volleys of the soldiers of the South. Nor do her greatest and her best onger question the one or put aside the others.

"To the Constitution, as he understood it, it is demonstrable that Washington himself was not more devoted than Lee and his written and spoken words in that day of ungovernable passion portray in the clearest light his immavable aversion to disunion.
"Why then it may be asked, did Lee governable passion portray in the clearest light his immovable aversion to disurdon. "Why, then, it may he asked, did Lee draw his sword in maintenance of secession, which he declared revolution, which he pronounced anarchy and which he foresaw and declared would inflict untold calamities upon the people? The reply is that he did no such thing. His purpose is declared in the letter to his son.

"If the Union is dissolved and the Government disrupted I shall return to my native State and share the miseries of my tive State and share the miseries of my people and save in defense will draw my tive State and share the miseries of my people and save in defense will draw my sword on none."

In his peroration Judge Speer referred to the proposition of the State of Virginia to place a statute of General Lee in Statuary Hall in the Capitol at Washington. In this connection he said:
"Deny Lee a place by Washington; ah. is it sure if in the awful hour when the invading columns approached Virginia's soil, the winds of the prophet had breathed upon the slain that they might live, that caught from the wall at Mount Vernon by the reincarnated hand of the Father of his country, the defensive blade of Washington would not have gleamed beside the sword of Lee? Repel then not, my country, the fervid love of the sons who fought with Lee and of the children of their loins.

Then honor him and in thy need on those who love him thou will not call in vain. And wee to thy foe in the press of battle when the soul of Lee shall fire their hearts and his bright sword shall point the charging columns of thy sons."
